User Agreement and Warranty

Version 2.0 December 2009

► IMPORTANT NOTICE

THIS LIQUIVISION X-LINK USER AGREEMENT AND WARRANTY (THIS “AGREEMENT”) IS AN AGREEMENT BETWEEN YOU AND LIQUIVISION PRODUCTS INC. (“LIQUIVISION”). YOUR USE OF THE LIQUIVISION X-LINK REBREATHER INTERFACE (THE “X-LINK”) IS SUBJECT TO THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS SET OUT IN THIS AGREEMENT. THIS AGREEMENT ALSO SETS OUT LIQUIVISION’S WARRANTY OF THE X-LINK, EXCLUSIONS AND LIMITATIONS OF LIQUIVISION’S LIABILITY TO YOU, PROVISIONS GOVERNING THE RESOLUTION OF DISPUTES AND CLAIMS BETWEEN YOU AND LIQUIVISION, AND OTHER IMPORTANT PROVISIONS. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH ALL OF THE PROVISIONS OF THIS AGREEMENT, YOU MUST NOT USE THE X-LINK, AND YOU MAY RETURN THE X-LINK TO LIQUIVISION OR THE AUTHORIZED LIQUIVISION DEALER FROM WHICH YOU PURCHASED THE X-LINK FOR A FULL REFUND WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER YOUR DATE OF PURCHASE. IF YOU USE THE X-LINK, YOU ARE DEEMED TO HAVE AGREED TO THIS AGREEMENT.

YOU MUST READ THE ENTIRE X-LINK USER MANUAL BEFORE USING YOUR X-LINK. INCORRECT INTALLATION OR USE OF THE X-LINK OR ITS ACCESSORIES WILL INVALIDATE YOUR WARRANTY AND CAN CAUSE PERMANENT DAMAGE TO THE X-LINK, ITS ACCESSORIES, AND OTHER DEVICES.

1. Important Warning

THE X-LINK AND THE LIQUIVISION X1 DIVE COMPUTER (THE “X1 DIVE COMPUTER”) ARE NOT INTENDED TO BE USED AS THE ONLY MONITOR OF OXYGEN OR OXYGEN PRESSURE. AN ADDITIONAL OXYGEN PRESSURE MONITOR AND CONTROL DEVICE SHOULD BE USED AT ALL TIMES.

THE INFORMATION PROVIDED BY THE X-LINK AND THE X1 DIVE COMPUTER MAY NOT BE ACCURATE AND SHOULD NOT BE USED FOR MAKING ADJUSTMENTS TO REBREATHER OXYGEN SETTINGS.

THE X-LINK AND THE LIQUIVISION X1 DIVE COMPUTER ARE NOT CONTROLLERS, AND DO NOT HAVE ANY CONTROL OVER A REBREATHER OXYGEN SYSTEM OR OTHER REBREATHER SYSTEM COMPONENTS.

THE X-LINK CAN STOP FUNCTIONING OR PROVIDE INACCURATE INFORMATION, WITHOUT WARNING, DUE TO VARIOUS UNCONTROLLABLE CAUSES (INCLUDING DEFECTIVE OXYGEN SENSORS OR OTHER REBREATHER SYSTEM COMPONENTS) OR THE USE OF A MANUAL OXYGEN PRESSURE SETPOINT. DEFECTIVE OR OLD OXYGEN SENSORS CAN PROVIDE INACCURATE INFORMATION, WHICH CAN LEAD TO INCORRECT AMOUNTS OF DECOMPRESSION AND DEADLY CONSEQUENCES. OXYGEN SENSORS SHOULD BE VALIDATED AND CALIBRATED USING PRESCRIBED PROCEDURES AND TEST EQUIPMENT BEFORE USE. THE X-LINK AND THE X-1 DIVE COMPUTER SHOULD NOT BE USED TO VALIDATE OR CALIBRATE OXYGEN SENSORS OR OTHER REBREATHER SYSTEM COMPONENTS.

THE X-LINK IS DESIGNED TO BE INSTALLED BY DIRECT HARDWIRE CONNECTION TO A REBREATHER HEAD. THIS PROCEDURE SHOULD BE PERFORMED ONLY BY A QUALIFIED SERVICE CENTER APPROVED BY THE REBREATHER MANUFACTURER. INCORRECT INSTALLATION (INCLUDING INCORRECT WIRING) CAN DAMAGE OR DESTROY THE REBREATHER OR THE X-LINK, OR CAUSE THE REBREATHER, THE X-LINK OR THE X1 DIVE COMPUTER TO MALFUNCTION RESULTING IN INCORRECT INFORMATION WHILE DIVING (WHICH COULD RESULT IN PERSONAL INJURY OR DEATH).

2. Your Risks and Responsibilities

Scuba diving, free diving and any other form of underwater diving (all of which are referred to in this Agreement as “diving”) are inherently dangerous and risky activities. Even with the best training, planning and equipment, participants may be injured or may die. If you choose to participate in diving, you accept the risk of injury or death and the responsibility to take all necessary steps to reduce these risks. Without limiting the foregoing, it is your sole responsibility to:

- obtain appropriate training;
- obtain, maintain and conduct appropriate pre-dive tests and checks of appropriate diving equipment, including redundant and back-up equipment to compensate for equipment failures while diving;
- plan your dive in advance and prepare and keep with you a dive plan;
- dive only within your abilities and experience and in accordance with your dive plan; and
- practice safe diving techniques, including not diving alone.

You also have the other responsibilities set out below.

3. The X-Link

The X-Link consists of a computer hardware unit encased in a protective waterproof shell, a water-stop cable, and a set of screws. When you purchase an X-Link unit, you become the owner of the X-Link unit, but not any patent or other intellectual property rights in the X-Link (all of which remain the sole and exclusive property of Liquivision).

4. The X1 Dive Computer and 3rd Party Software

The X-Link as purchased by you is a computer hardware expansion interface designed to be used only with an X1 Dive Computer that has third party decompression software ("3rd Party Software") installed on it. The X-Link will not operate or perform any function independently of an X1 Dive Computer with 3rd Party Software.

The Liquivision website lists 3rd Party Software designed to operate on the X1 Dive Computer and work with the X-Link. Liquivision does not recommend or endorse any 3rd Party Software, and you are responsible to select, purchase, install and properly use the 3rd Party Software of your choosing. Liquivision makes no representation, warranty, condition or guarantee regarding the current or future availability or quality of 3rd Party Software, including the availability of software updates or upgrades. Liquivision is not responsible or liable for any problems you may experience as a result of use of the 3rd Party Software, including death, personal injury or loss or damage to your computer, software, data or other personal property. Any claims regarding 3rd Party Software should be directed to the manufacturers of 3rd Party Software.

Your use of the X1 Dive Computer is governed by the applicable Liquivision X1 User Agreement and Warranty, which was included in the box with the X1 Dive Computer.

5. Installation

The X-Link is designed to be installed by direct hardwire connection to a rebreather head. This procedure should be performed only by a qualified service center approved by the rebreather manufacturer. Incorrect installation (including incorrect wiring) can damage or destroy the rebreather or the X-Link, or cause the rebreather or the X-Link to malfunction resulting in incorrect information while diving (which could result in personal injury or death). Incorrect installation of the X-Link will void the warranty.

6. Warranty

6.1 Warranty & Warranty Period: Liquivision warrants the X-Link will be free from defects in materials or workmanship during the Warranty Period (the "Warranty"). If you purchased your X-Link through the Liquivision website, the Warranty Period is the one year period commencing on the date of shipment of your X-Link to you. If you purchased your X-Link from an authorized Liquivision dealer (a "Dealer"), the Warranty Period is one year commencing on your date of purchase of your X-Link. If you make a warranty claim, you must provide Liquivision with proof of your date of purchase of your X-Link to establish your Warranty Period, and failure to do so will result in denial of your warranty claim.

6.2 Remedy: In the event of any breach of the Warranty, Liquivision's sole liability and obligation to you, and your sole right and remedy against Liquivision, is for Liquivision, at its option, to either: (i) repair or replace the defective component of the X-Link; or (ii) replace the defective X-Link in its entirety; or (iii) refund the purchase price for the defective X-Link. If Liquivision repairs or replaces your X-Link, the repaired or replacement X-Link is subject to the Warranty for the remainder of the original Warranty Period of the repaired or replaced X-Link or three months from the date of repair or replacement, whichever is longer. Any part removed from an X-Link during repair and any X-Link that is replaced or for which a refund is given by Liquivision, or by a Dealer on behalf of Liquivision, under the Warranty becomes the property of Liquivision. In fulfillment of the Warranty, Liquivision and its Dealers may use parts that are new, equivalent to new or reconditioned in the repair of an X-Link, and may provide a new, equivalent to new or reconditioned X-Link in replacement of another X-Link. Neither Liquivision nor any of its Dealers will be liable to compensate you for any loss of use of the X-Link as a result of any warranty claim, including as a result of any delay in the repair or replacement of your X-Link.

6.3 Warranty Limitations and Exclusions: The Warranty is subject to the following limitations and exclusions:

- The Warranty applies only if the X-Link is used while worn by a human being diving to a depth not exceeding 180 metres (591 feet). The Warranty is void in the event of any other use.
- The X-Link must be recharged using only the multifunction attachment and AC adapter provided with the X1 Dive Computer. The multifunction attachment and AC adapter are not intended for use underwater, and any submersion of those items in water will void the Warranty in respect of those items.
- The X-Link must not be recharged in direct sunlight or while exposed to temperatures in excess of 45°C (113°F). Failure to comply with this requirement will void the Warranty.
- The X-Link must be used in accordance with the X-Link User Manual. The Warranty does not apply to defects or damage caused by: (i) misuse, neglect or improper or rough handling (including punctures, bending, compressing or dropping of the X-Link); (ii) any use of the X-Link not in accordance with the X-Link User Manual; (iii) use of the X-Link with or connection of the X-Link to any product, accessory, software and/or service not manufactured, supplied or approved by Liquivision; (iv) normal wear and tear; or (v) accidents, fire, power changes, other hazards, acts of God and other causes beyond the reasonable control of Liquivision.
- The Warranty does not apply to 3rd Party Software, other software, settings, content or data that is generated by the X-Link and stored on the X1 Dive Computer at the time of purchase or afterwards, whether by Liquivision, you or any third party.
- Incorrect installation /connection of the X-Link to a rebreather will void the Warranty. The Warranty does not apply to any damage or defects caused during the installation/connection of the X-Link to a rebreather.
- The Warranty will be void if: (i) the X-Link has been opened, modified or repaired by any person other than Liquivision; (ii) the X-Link's serial number has been removed, erased, defaced or altered in any way or is illegible, as determined by Liquivision in its sole discretion; (iii) the X-Link has been exposed to chemical products, including mosquito repellants; or (iv) the X-Link has been improperly installed (connected) to a rebreather.

7. X-Link Battery Warranty

7.1 Battery Warranty and Battery Warranty Period: Liquivision warrants that during the Battery Warranty Period (see below) the fully charged X-Link battery will operate the X-Link in dive mode, using the most current, Liquivision-approved version of the V-Planner Live software on the X1 Dive Computer, for not less than seven (7) consecutive hours (the "Battery Warranty"). You are responsible to ensure that the battery in your X-Link is fully charged before each dive. If you purchased your X-Link through the Liquivision website, the Warranty Period is the three (3) year period commencing on the date of shipment of your X-Link to you. If you purchased your X-Link from an authorized Liquivision dealer (a “Dealer”), the Warranty Period is three (3) years commencing on your date of purchase of your X-Link. If you make a warranty claim regarding the X-Link battery, you must provide Liquivision with proof of your date of purchase of your X-Link to establish your Warranty Period, and failure to do so will result in denial of your warranty claim.

7.2 Remedy: In the event of any breach of the Battery Warranty, Liquivision’s sole liability and obligation to you, and your sole right and remedy against Liquivision, is for Liquivision, at its option, to either: (i) repair or replace the defective battery of the X-Link; or (ii) replace the X-Link in its entirety; or (iii) refund the purchase price for the X-Link. If Liquivision repairs or replaces the battery only, the repaired or replacement battery is subject to the Battery Warranty for the remainder of the original Battery Warranty Period of the repaired or replaced battery or three months from the date of repair or replacement, whichever is longer. If Liquivision replaces the entire X-Link, the replacement X-Link is subject to the Battery Warranty for the remainder of the original Battery Warranty Period of the replaced X-Link or three months from the date of replacement, whichever is longer. Any battery or other part removed from an X-Link during repair and any X-Link that is replaced or for which a refund is given by Liquivision, or by a Dealer on behalf of Liquivision, under the Battery Warranty becomes the property of Liquivision. In fulfillment of the Battery Warranty, Liquivision and its Dealers may use parts that are new, equivalent to new or reconditioned, and may provide a new, equivalent to new or reconditioned battery in replacement of another battery. Neither Liquivision nor any of its Dealers will be liable to compensate you for any loss of use of the X-Link as a result of any warranty claim, including as a result of any delay in the repair or replacement of your X-Link battery.

7.3 Warranty Limitations and Exclusions: The Battery Warranty is subject to the following limitations and exclusions:

- The Battery Warranty applies only if the X-Link is used while worn by a human being diving to a depth not exceeding 180 metres (591 feet). The Battery Warranty is void in the event of any other use.
- The Battery Warranty does not apply if the X-Link is recharged in direct sunlight or while exposed to temperatures in excess of 45°C (113°F).
- The Battery Warranty does not apply to battery failure caused by: (i) misuse, neglect or improper or rough handling (including punctures, bending, compressing or dropping of the X-Link); (ii) any use of the X-Link not in accordance with the X-Link User Manual; (iii) use of the X-Link with or connection of the X-Link to any product, accessory, software and/or service not manufactured, supplied or approved by Liquivision; (iv) improper installation/connection of the X-Link to a rebreather; or (v) accidents, fire, power changes, other hazards, acts of God and other causes beyond the reasonable control of Liquivision.

- The Battery Warranty does not apply if Liquivision’s test lab determines that the X-Link is able to operate in dive mode and using the most current, Liquivision-approved version of the V-Planner Live software on the X1 Dive Computer for seven (7) consecutive hours.

7.4 Out-of-Warranty Battery Replacement: The X-Link battery can only be replaced or repaired by Liquivision.
